COURSES AND REQUIREMENTS

LUSEM offers courses for exchange students within business administration, business law, economics, economic history, informatics and statistics. Exchange students are expected to take the majority of their courses at LUSEM. Courses are in high demand, and have varying prerequisites. Courses on graduate level are only open to graduate level students, and seat availability cannot be guaranteed. Students should apply for four to five courses, each with two alternatives. All courses, including alternatives, must be approved by home university before applying.

Changes can only be made due to conflicting schedules. Visit lusem.lu.se/exchange/courses for more information regarding courses, syllabi and prerequisites.

Nominated exchange students are not required to submit English language test scores. The recommended level of English proficiency is equivalent to IELTS 6.5/TOEFL PB/IB 575/90 or CEFR B2 level.

COURSE LOAD, GRADING AND TRANSCRIPTS

A full semester workload is 30 ECTS credits. Exchange students are not allowed to overload. A single course module typically equals 7.5 ECTS credits. The grading system used is a criterion-based grading scale A-F.

Two copies of the official transcript will be sent to home university approximately one month after the semester has ended. Written retake exams are only available in Lund.

ARRIVAL DAY AND ORIENTATION WEEKS

All international students are recommended to arrive in Lund on the official Arrival Day, where mentors and university staff help you settle into your new life in Lund. International mentors will meet you at Copenhagen airport and at the railway station in Lund. Arrival Day is the start of the Orientation weeks, which include a variety of activities that aim to help you settle in smoothly at the University and in student life.

Visit lunduniversity.lu.se/arrival-and-introduction for more information to prepare your arrival.

The orientation weeks also include a short Swedish language course, designed especially for exchange students to give an introduction to the Swedish language. You apply for the language course as part of the online application for nominated exchange students, before coming to Lund.

LUSEM PRE-REGISTRATION DAY

It is compulsory to attend the registration meeting at LUSEM on Pre-Registration Day in order to enroll and to finalise the study plan.
